Seeking Broad Community Input into the Search for our next Artistic Director

The Search Committee of the Board of Theatre Passe Muraille are interested in hearing from our community. We appreciate your input and comments as we begin the selection process for our new Artistic Director.

Your personal insights into any or all of TPM's history, values, artistic direction and/or community engagement can beneficially inform the Search Committee with their upcoming evaluation of potential candidates for Artistic Director at TPM.

Our community are valued partners with TPM so your perspective would be most insightful to the Search Committee and we encourage your participation. Any and all comments will be kept confidential and no single comment will appear in a manner that would allow it to be readily attributed to anyone.

Thank you for taking the time to provide the Search Committee with your views.
